

TAMPA BAY BUSINESS JOURNAL | CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON 23-STORY APARTMENT TOWER IN DOWNTOWN TAMPA

The demolition of a strip of abandoned storefronts in downtown Tampa is underway, preparing the site for a 23-story apartment tower.

DPR Construction, the general contractor on the project, has fenced off the 900 block of North Franklin Street and began demolition today. A construction official said it would take about two months to completely level the site.

Atlanta-based Carter, the tower's developer, has closed on all of its financing for the project, chief development officer Conor McNally said Monday.
